

SOUTHERN CROSS UNIVERSITY ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2010

Appendix B

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR ACADEMIC STAFF

Academic work at Southern Cross University is based on a flexible and individually negotiated framework encompassing scholarship and service. Scholarship is categorised as scholarship of discovery, scholarship of integration, scholarship of application and scholarship of teaching. An academic can negotiate or be appointed to a work activity profile that encompasses one or more of the scholarship categories plus service.

The academic levels are differentiated by level of complexity, degree of autonomy, leadership requirements of the position and level of achievement of the academic. The responsibilities of academic staff may vary according to the specific requirements of the University to meet its objectives, to different discipline requirements and/or to individual staff development.

An academic appointed to a particular level may be assigned and may be expected to undertake, responsibilities and functions of any level up to and including the level to which the academic is appointed or promoted. In addition, an academic may undertake elements of the work of a higher level in order to gain experience and expertise consistent with the requirements of an institution's promotion processes.

The following minimum standards for academic levels (MSAL), inclusive of creative disciplines, will not be used as a basis for claims for reclassification:

Level A

A Level A academic will work with the support and guidance from more senior academic staff and is expected to develop his or her expertise in one or more categories of scholarship with an increasing degree of autonomy. A Level A academic will normally have completed four years of tertiary study or equivalent qualifications and experience and may be required to hold a relevant higher degree.

A Level A academic will be required to contribute to one or more categories of scholarship at the institution, at a level appropriate to the skills and experience of the staff member, and/or engage in professional activities appropriate to his or her profession or discipline, and undertake administration primarily relating to his or her activities at the institution. The contribution to teaching of Level A academics will be primarily at undergraduate and graduate diploma level.

A Level A academic will typically conduct scholarship activities under limited supervision either independently or as a member of a team and will normally hold a relevant higher degree. A Level A academic will normally work under the supervision of academic staff at Level B or above, with an increasing degree of autonomy as the academic gains skills and experience. Depending on their qualifications, a Level A academic may supervise research students and may publish the results of research conducted as sole author or in collaboration. He or she will undertake administration primary relating to his or her activities at the institution.

Level B

A Level B academic will be required to engage in one or more categories of scholarship on an independent or team basis in his or her discipline or related area.
