

Southern Cross University acknowledges the First Peoples on whose Lands our campuses are located.

Students can request recognition of Australian First Nations language proficiency as an alternative to the Literacy and Numeracy Test for Initial Teacher Education (LANTITE).

Privacy Collection Notice:

Southern Cross University is collecting and processing your personal information via this form to:

- Evidence your proficiency in a First Nations language as an alternative standard to the LANTITE, as required by the revised national LANTITE requirements from the Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership (AITSL); and
- Administer your completion of this requirement in our student system.

Student Details

First name	Last name	Student ID number
Signature
Course you are currently admitted to:
BEd	BEd (Prim), BA	BEd (Sec), BA	GradDipTeach	MTeach

Confirmation from a Land Council (or incorporated Indigenous organisation) that the applicant possesses high levels of proficiency in their First Nations language.

Please ensure all parts of this section are completed by the relevant authority.

Language name/clan group
Relevant Land Council/Organisation name
Statement: I certify that (student)	is proficient in (language)
Print name	Role/position	Date
Signature	Land Council seal
Comment (optional)

Non-Signatory option:

This declaration can also be submitted in an alternative format, such as a video or audio recording.

We may share your personal information with relevant Government Departments or agencies to confirm your exemption from the LANTITE. If you choose not to provide all the information requested, we may not be able to register your completion of this requirement which may impact your ability to complete your course. We ensure that personal information is collected and managed in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 1998 (NSW).