

Broaden your horizons

Career Start is designed to help you broaden your international perspective in a location that is perfect to explore the best of Australia. Your studies in Australia will be credited back to your home institution. The course starts with 10 or 20 weeks of the English Language Proficiency Program and then four (4) units of academic study. This program includes College Connect giving students additional support through extra on-campus tutorials, online workshops and social media groups.

Away from my home country Japan for the first time, studying abroad in Australia.

This has become one of the best experiences in my life. What I loved most whilst I was living in Australia is all the friends I have made.
