Welcome

Orientation week is carefully planned to help you settle into life in Australia and prepare you for university study so you feel comfortable and confident in your new environment.

If you miss any orientation activities, make an orientation appointment with the SCU International support staff so you don't miss out on vital information.

Or visit scu.edu.au/international/support

Study Australia is the official Australian Government website for international students, with information about studying and living in Australia.

Visit studyaustralia.gov.au

We strongly recommend that you go through the information on the following Study Australia site regarding visa, travel, vaccine and support services before you make your plan to travel to Australia.

Visit studyaustralia.gov.au/english/latest-travel-and-visa-advice

Southern Cross University acknowledges and pays respect to the ancestors, Elders and descendants of the Lands upon which we meet and study. We are mindful that within and without the concrete and steel of buildings these Lands always were and always will be Aboriginal Land.

Settling in Making international calls

telstra.com.au

- Dial: 0011 (the international access code) + country code + area code (if required) + local phone number.
- Internet messaging or video chat (e.g. Skype) are the cheapest ways to communicate
- Phone cards or sim cards are available at supermarkets, petrol stations, newsagents and online.

Managing your finances

Opening a bank account

moneysmart.gov.au

We recommend opening a bank account when you arrive. To open an account you need:

- Your passport
- Your student ID card and other photo identification as required by the bank

Budgeting

Consider the expenses you are likely to encounter while living in Australia, so you can budget for these more effectively.

The finance planner below will help you understand important expenses to factor into your budgeting plan.

Passport activity: managing your finances

Expect initial and ongoing living and study expenses.

Complete the finance planner table below during the orientation session.

Enrolment

Enrolment is a priority upon arrival at Southern Cross University. Enrolment sessions are conducted during orientation week. All new international students must enrol during orientation week in order to commence their studies.

To check your enrolment details visit scu.edu.au/myenrolment and log in:

- Enter your Student ID number and password.
- Go to My Study Plans.
- Check your unit selection.

Variation of enrolment

Financial impacts for continuing students*
Date of unit withdrawal	Financial impact in a session based course
On or before the last day of week 2 for the relevant session	100% refund for the withdrawn unit
After the last day of Week 2 and on or before Census Date for the relevant teaching period	50% refund for the withdrawn unit
After the Census Date for the relevant session	Full financial liability for the withdrawn unit
*Refund rules relating to commencing students, refer to Section 3, Part B 'Standard. Refunds for International Onshore Students' in the Refunds and Remissions Procedure at scu.edu.au/policy
Academic impacts for commencing and continuing students
Date of unit withdrawal	Academic impact
On or before the Census Date for the relevant teacher period	No record of the withdrawn unit on the academic transcript
After Census Date of the relevant teacher period	A grade of Withdrawn Fail will be recorded on your Academic Transcript. A grade of Withdrawn Fail affects your grade point average and is worth "O" in GPA calculations.

Student visa

Obtaining a student visa is often a long and difficult process. While we are not immigration agents, we are obliged to report potential breaches. For more information about your visa, visit the Department of Home Affairs at homeaffairs.gov.au

Current address

Your current residential address and emergency contacts must be updated within seven days within "My Enrolment". This is a mandatory requirement throughout your studies.

Academic requirements

You must maintain a full-time enrolment load (study plan) to complete the course as indicated on your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). You must also have satisfactory academic progress (pass more than 50 per cent of units) in each session.

Overseas Student Health Cover

You must ensure you have valid Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) during your studies in Australia.

Work limitations

You can work once studies have commenced, but this does not include orientation week. A student can work up to 48 hours per fortnight during session times and unlimited hours during holiday time unless you are enrolled in a higher degree by research program.

Remaining at Southern Cross University for six months

You must study at Southern Cross University for at least six months. If you have come to study English or a pathway course as a package, you must complete this course and then study at Southern Cross University for six months before transferring to another education provider. If you need to change to another university before this, due to exceptional circumstance, you will need to see your International Student Adviser to discuss your options.

Passport activity: student visa quiz

Enter your answers in the score box at the end of the quiz. You can check answers during the quiz activity session.

1. Whenever you change your residential address or other contact details while studying at Southern Cross University, it is a mandatory student visa condition to update your details in My Enrolment within:
 - A. 7 days
 - B. 14 days
 - C. 21 days
2. The University is NOT obliged to report to the Department of Home Affairs any potential student visa breaches, such as withdrawing from your studies, failing to meet course requirements etc.
 - A. True – The Department of Home Affairs does not expect the University to report any breaches
 - B. False – The University is obliged to report ALL breaches and any potential breaches to the Department of Home Affairs

3. You can only work up to 40 hours per fortnight during compulsory study sessions on a student visa, but you are allowed to work unlimited hours during vacation periods according to the University's key teaching dates.
- True
 - False
4. It is your responsibility to maintain Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the FULL duration of your student visa. If you do not have OSHC insurance while you are on a student visa:
- Your visa may be cancelled
 - You and your family will be liable to pay for any medical bills if you have an accident or illness (this can be very expensive in Australia)
 - Both A and B
- (Note: there is an exception for Belgian, Swedish and Norwegian students.)
5. You are required to submit a Travel Notification form to SCU International if you plan to travel away from the local area for more than:
- 48 hours
 - One week
 - One month
6. What visa conditions apply if you need to defer your studies in Australia?
- You must leave Australia during this time
 - Your visa will be cancelled if you defer for more than one study session (maximum 6 months)
 - Both A and B
7. If a student is reported to the Department of Home Affairs for unsatisfactory academic performance what does the student need to do?
- The student will need to make contact with Department of Home Affairs to explain his/her situation and discuss the implications on his/her student visa
 - Nothing will happen, the student will continue their study and try to improve their academic performance in the next study session

- Nothing can be done, the student visa will be cancelled automatically
8. If you have failed or potentially failed 50 per cent or more units in one study session, SCU International will:
- Send you a letter advising you go to one of the University's support services and ask for help
 - Place you on an 'Intervention Strategy' in the next study session to monitor your progress
 - Exclude you for one study session
9. Your student visa requires you to be enrolled as a full-time internal student, but you are allowed to enrol in some external units. How many external units are you allowed to enrol in?
- Four units from your whole course (including any advanced standing/unit exemptions you may have)
 - One third of your whole course (including any advanced standing/unit exemptions you may have)
 - One third of the total number of units you will study in Australia
10. If you need to extend your visa, you must go to a Department of Home Affairs office in person to apply for a visa extension.
- True – all visa extensions must be applied for in person at a Department of Home Affairs office
 - False – you can apply for a visa extension online from the Department of Home Affairs website
