

Exemption from Assessment Design – Unit-level weightings and workloads

as set out in University Assessment Procedures

Please complete the table below and email to your School/College Director of Teaching and Learning.

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Unit Code and Title: Unit Assessor: | |
| Variation request More/less than 2-4 assessment items per 12 credit point unit More than 60% weighting for an assessment item More than 30% weighting for the collective component of group assessment More than 20% weighting for non-invigilated tests or exams Formative feedback from first assessment task not provided until second half of study period Assessment is not distributed evenly across the study period | |
| Provide reasons for the request External accreditation requirements Manage risk for work integrated learning Strong pedagogical reasons, as below | |
| School/College Director of Teaching & Learning Name | Supported Not supported |
| Comments if required | |

If supported, submit to Accreditation Committee for approval via acad.board@scu.edu.au or using the submit button below.

Submit