

REVIEW of GNIBI COLLEGE OF INDIGENOUS AUSTRALIAN PEOPLES

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Scope

These terms of reference apply to the review of Gnibi College of Indigenous Australian Peoples, under the Southern Cross University Organisational Reviews Policy.

Terms of Reference

- 1. To consider the University's needs and opportunities with respect to engagement with Indigenous students and communities and to offer recommendations with respect to the potential role of Gnibi and other elements of the University to those ends.
- 2. Having regard to the University's stated strategies and aspirations with respect to Indigenous engagement, education and research, to review the existing role, mission, governance and structure of Gnibi and offer reflections on potential alternative approaches.
- 3. As a specific focusing question, noting (1) above, to review the structure, quality and impact of existing Gnibi educational programs and offer recommendations in relation to future educational models and objectives, including the role of the University's other academic Schools.
- 4. To consider the existing capabilities within Gnibi with respect to research and research supervision and to offer recommendations on any alternative approaches to informing the University's approach to Indigenous research.
- 5. To offer any other pertinent recommendations and observations that flow from the review engagement.